

The Faith in Fiction Program FAQ

What is “Faith in Fiction”?

The Faith in Fiction program provides an opportunity for bookstore staff to engage with WaterBrook Multnomah fiction books and ARCs.

How does it work?

Each month, we'll offer a variety of fiction books or ARCs for members of the program to select from. All you need to do is go to www.WaterBrookMultnomah.com/FaithinFiction and fill out the form to let us know which book you'd like to receive.

You'll also receive a monthly email reminder with links to the page and a little bit of information about the new books available that month, just to make things easy.

How do I sign up?

Go to www.WaterBrookMultnomah.com/FIFsignup to register for the program. We'll ask you for some information, including your name, mailing address, and email address so that we can communicate with you.

When does it start?

This program launches June 1, 2012. You can register now!

What do I have to do to stay in the program?

Not much! Just continue to request and read our books.
